VESPER CREW MAKING VERY GOOD SHOWING

(By Associated Press.)

HENLY, ENG., June 27.—The crew of the Vesper Boat Club of Philadelphia had some smart practice to-day. The respect of the Riverside experts for the chances of the American visitors increases daily. As an old Oxford "blue" remarked.

"The crew get a big dig which shirts their boat and they get cut their blades again without losing time. They will want a lot of beating."

MONTAGUE AND MANN ON STUMP

tion of United States enator by the Legislature. The people can never be protected in property rights when their representatives are elected by corporations. He referred to Quay, of Pennsylvania, and Gass Addicks, of Delaware. He did not want influence with indicted Senators.

Government is best when administered best, I want the interest of the people, he declared. The Democratic party wanted a primary, but it was defeated at the Rosnoke convention. After the May conference the Democratic Central Committee refused to grant the request. The Governor stated that he had always favored the election of Senators by the people

Last year the convention passed the primary bill and the constitutional convention removed all reason for fraud, and now any Democrat ought to be allowed to ask any other Democrat to fix his ticket.

Public Property.

Public Property.

He believed a public record is public property and open to discussion. Has the junior Senator stood for election by the people before, and has he ever espoused the cause? He has made more speeches in the past fifty-six days than in his whole life. Why ask the people to vote for him now. In wanting the help of the National Government for high-ways we stand together. I believe only he is just six years behind.

I do not believe in monopoly or bassism in anything, esnecially in politica. I come as a Democrat to Democratic with no ring or organization at my back.

College's 125,000 was among the number.

The junior Senator could not have promoted the passage had he desired to, for it was unanimously pressed.

As to the Virginia debt claim, the bill was Senator Daniel's originally, and while Daniel was in the constitutional conveution Senator Martin became its patron and the bill passed without trouble. The actual amount received from the government was $5.50. The settlement was made to him as Governor of the State. He read a detailed account from the United States Government.

Presumptious. Presumptious.

Presumptious.

Some of the friends of the junior Senator seem to think me presumptuous to aspire to the senatorship. The place is to be filled by the people, and it will be vacant at the end of the term. If one man is to be kept in always what is the use of the terms. If experience is necessary inexperience would have kept him out in the first place. Experienced men ilke Fitz Lee and Eppa-Hunton and Holmes Conrad gave way to inexperience. At the close of his speech the Governor was heartily cheered.

GOVERNOR TIRED . Faced, a Big Audience for Hour

and a Half.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
FARMVILLE, VA., June 27.—Governor Montague addressed the citizens of Farm ville and vicinity to-night. The opera nouse was lined and a fundamental sentative citizens were upon the stage. The Governor was not at his best, though his speech is generally pronounced to have been the best by far heard here during the present campaign. He showed somewhat the fatigue of the long drive during the present campaign. The showed somewhat the fatigue of the long drive taken yesterday across the rough country roads from Palmyra to Cumberland Courthouse, where he addressed a large crowd to-day, coming late this evening to Farmville.

When Dr. W. E. Anderson, country chairman of Prince Edward, arose tonight to present the Governor, he faced the largest audience which has yet appeared at a political speaking in this place, and for more than one hour and a half listened with profound interest to his able and eloquent discussion of pending issues. His address was along the lines of other speeches made by him throughout the State and that he dealt fairly with his opponent in discussing his record as seemator and his canvasar for re-election will not be disputed.

He said that in the last fifty-eight days Senator Martin had made more speches than before in all the fifty-eight or fifty-nine years of his life, and not one time in all these speeches had he declared in favor of the Democratic primary plan of election. Then he must favor the Legislature electing as a better method and more capable than the people. He closed with a beautiful tribute to McKinney. Hunton and Fitz Lee, the appreciation of which was manifest in the deafening applause which followed. The Governor made a lasting impression for good to his candidacy in Farmville.
